

The anchor moves the AGN fraction and its error together, so the significance barely moves

